BIG CUT IN OIL PRICES

ANOTHER SLUMP MAKES TOTAL DECLINE OF ONE THIRD SINCE JANUARY 1.

Since the article below was written, oil has taken another drop of 25c, making Somerset $2.50 and Somerset Light $2.75. Some oil men are expressing the fear that it will drop 50 cents more before the decline stops. The wages of drillers tool dressers and teams are being cut from one-fourth to one-third.

1000 strings of tools were shut down in Oklahoma last week. Drillers from there are already finding their way to this field. Jobs are getting scarce.

On last Friday the Joe Seep Purchasing Agency, the Standard oil company's buying department, made another cut in the price of crude oil. This time it was 75 cents per barrel on Somerset and Somerset Light, the two grades produced in Kentucky. There had been three declines previously of 25 cents each. This brings the price of Somerset Light from $4.50 to $2.50 and Somerset from $4.25 to $2.75.

This big decline is stopping all the work that can be stopped in Kentucky. Offsets and contracts only are being drilled. Wages are dropping. Wildcat work will soon be at a standstill.

The reports sent out from Harboursville, Ky., to the daily press each week are evidently "inspired." The article under date of February 6, says the declines in oil will have no effect on development work in Kentucky.

Overproduction The Cause.

A Lima, Ohio, report gives the following theory as to the decline in prices:

During the war, and even as late as last summer, it was stated that there was not sufficient crude oil in this country, but this was at a time when demand was at its height. The depletion of industry taken together with the fact that thousands of people who bought motor cars during the period of high wages have since either sold them or stopped running them, has brought a frightful reduction in the amount of refined products being used. How much of this is due to seasonal conditions cannot be estimated, but the winter has been so open in the United States that cars ordinarily laid up in the fall months have been kept running, and it would seem that it is rather a case of over-production in the gusher territory of the midcontinent together with the new fields of Wyoming, the steady production of Kentucky and the enormous production that has been developed in Mexico and the coastal fields of Texas.

In this latter country field reports show that there was an actual gain in production of over 43,000 barrels in North Louisiana, as compared with December. In the fuel oil districts of the gulf coast there was an actual gain of 66,000 barrels for the same period.

Every Field Affected.

The drop in prices of crude started the first of the year and has now affected every field in the United States and in Canada. While the drop in price has reflected some of this drop in percentage it shows very low, for while in the gusher district of North Texas has been 43 per cent, the latest decline noted in oil runs around 6 per cent and a small fraction. In general the drop in gasoline is running 2 1/2 to 3 cents.

Triennial Oil Report For Kentucky

The NEWS is in receipt of a Triennial Report gotten out by E. E. Loomis, Secretary of Kentucky Oil Men's Association, which is very interesting, from the fact that it shows the production in Kentucky for the years 1918-1919-1920. He says that figures were not available however prior to April 1, 1918. Therefore he only shows nine months of that year, which shows a total of 3,444,620.48 barrels of oil produced in the state for the eight months which sold for $8,906,422.83, while 1919 shows a total production of 9,226,472.49 barrels which sold for $24,459,016.74, but the banner year was 1920 from the real point of interest. While it was about six hundred seventy thousand barrels short of 1919 in the number of barrels, it makes up for it in dollars and cents. The total amount of money received for the production of oil in 1920 was $32,556,241.53.

In this report Lawrence county plays her part. In April 1917, this county produced 5,924.76 barrels which sold for $15,402.00. During the nine months of 1918 Lawrence county produced 53,060.82 barrels which sold for the sum of $137,965.00. In 1919 the county produced 94,594.41 barrels of oil which sold for $260,024.00, while in 1920 she produced 217,675.54 barrels which sold for $580,451.44.

All the oil producing counties of the Big Sandy show a good gain.

DR. FUGITT IN FLORIDA.

Dr. W. W. Fugitt writes from St. Petersburg, Florida, January 31, as follows:

We are having a beautiful winter season in the Land of Sunshine and Flowers—so the lowest temperature we have Los Angeles, Cal., "skinned a mile." It snowed there last Sunday. We have fully 40,000 tourists this winter.

YOUNG HUSBAND IS SOUGHT BY TWO WIVES

Winchester, Ky.—Two women, one a Richmond, Ky., girl and the other a beautiful young Creole from New Orleans, each claiming to be the wife of George Little of Winchester and Jackson, Ky., came to the office of County Attorney H. H. Moore and asked that he help them find their husband. The Richmond girl, who was Miss Mary Hopper, swore to a warrant charging bigamy, which was placed in the hands of the Sheriff. She married Little, she said, in February, 1920, in Richmond. The Creole woman, who said she married Little in 1918 when Little was a soldier, refused to prosecute, saying that she loved him and all she wanted was her husband.

Wife No. 1 who gave her name as Camilla Little, said that when her husband's letters from Kentucky became infrequent, she followed, found him at Jackson, remained with him three days, but lost him again when he left Saturday. The Creole girl then came to Richmond and found wife No. 2 there, she said.

SLAYER'S TRIAL DELAYED; KILLED SON, SHOT FATHER

Salisburyville, Ky., Feb. 5.—The examining trial of William Gillmore, 36 years old, charged with killing his brother-in-law, Fred Whit, 27, and probably fatally wounding his father-in-law, Matt Whit, 50, was continued here today until next week.

The shooting, which occurred January 23, was due to a dispute over land rental.

Gillmore was captured in Morgan county three days later. Two revolvers were taken from him. He is in jail here.

N. & W. WILL SPEND MILLIONS ON IMPROVEMENTS

Nearly $18,000,000 is being spent by the Norfolk & Western Railway Company for improvements on its lines, including the opening of 26,000 acres of new coal lands in West Virginia, the electrification of piers at Norfolk, the building of 1,000 120-ton coal cars, and many modernizations counting for increased economy.

ROAD INJUNCTION CASE DELAYED

The injunction suit brought by D. L. Thompson to prevent the expenditure of any bond money on the Mayo Trail was heard by Judge A. N. Cisco at Ashland last Saturday. Thompson was assisted in the case by attorneys Waugh & Howerton, of Ashland, and G. W. Castle of Louisa. The other side was represented by Attorney General Dawson of Frankfort, and A. J. Garrett, M. S. Burns and John W. Woods.

Attorney A. J. May of Floyd county was present because of the interest of the upper valley in seeing the road built.

A large number of Lawrence county citizens and several from Boyd county were in attendance.

After the case was presented and all papers filed the plaintiff was given five days in which to file a brief. This was requested on the ground that the death of Mr. Waugh's father-in-law last week had prevented him from getting ready for the trial.

Since that Judge Cisco's mother-in-law has died and he has gone to the funeral and will not get back until after expiration of the five days. However, the delay will probably be more than two or three days in having a decision.

$1,479,384 ROAD FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR KENTUCKY

Washington, Feb. 8.—Federal aid funds available for contract for road construction in Kentucky on January 1 amounted to $2,979,384, it was learned at the Federal Bureau of Roads today. Of this amount officials said $1,500,000 will be put under contract before April 1, leaving $1,479,384 of Federal aid funds available for new contracts at that date.

NOTICE TO VOLUNTEERS IN THE WORLD WAR

Every Lawrence county man who volunteered for service in the world war is requested to send his name and address to Mrs. G. R. Vinson, Louisa, Ky. Please do this at once.

OIL MAN LOCATES HERE.

Norwood P. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Louisa Tuesday with his bride and they have taken rooms at the residence of Mrs. John Horton. They were married on Monday. Mr. Johnson is a son of one of the chief stockholders in the Cumberland Petroleum Company, having large holdings in this section of Kentucky. The young man is here to help look after these interests.

PLANING MILL AND BUILDING COMPANY

A NEW ENTERPRISE TO BE ESTABLISHED IN LOUISA VERY SOON.

An enterprise of much promise and importance is being promoted for Louisa and has progressed far enough that its accomplishment seems assured.

It is a mill for working building material to order. Also, the firm will contract for the erection of buildings, furnishing everything required. Lumber will be bought in the region in large quantities and worked as required by the demands.

The company has contracted for the purchase of the property recently sold by Mrs. Olga Chapman to Harvey Hardin. It is adjacent to the C. & O. railway and just below the freight depot and is convenient to a side track.

The plans have been worked out in detail for a business that will reach out through both the Tug and Levisa valleys. Louisa has many advantages as a shipping point. It is rather remarkable that the opening for this enterprise has not been taken advantage of sooner.

We are not at liberty just now to mention the names of the men at the head of this business, but will say that they have had the experience necessary to make the business go. The organization is well balanced. Most of the stock has already been subscribed and no time will be lost in starting the business.

CLEANING UP KNOTT COUNTY MOONSHINERS

Frankfort, Ky., February 5.—Life as "good" for the moonshiner in Knott county, Sheriff Andrew Combs today informed Governor Edwin P. Morrow. Sheriff Combs reported that since July 1, 1918, he had destroyed 104 moonshine stills, 588 barrels or fermenters, 19,470 gallons of beer or mash, 27 still "worms," 288 gallons of singlings, 10 bushels of malt corn and 16 guns.

"We have the shiners about cleaned out," said Combs.

STATE TREASURY BALANCE GIVEN AS $4,279,106

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—The balance in the State Treasury at the close of business January 31 was $4,279,106.84, as follows: General expenditures fund, $2,015,371.63; school fund, $1,384,355.35; road fund, $709,719.50; sinking fund, $89,723.79; University of Kentucky, $51,789.67; Eastern State Normal, $18,528.45; Western State Normal, $18,528.45.

Outstanding interest bearing warrants January 31, $5,990,862.37; outstanding December 31, $6,522,766.68. Of the outstanding warrants $1,151,594.74 are against the school fund.

85 COUNTIES INCREASE LEVY BY $73,952,227

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 4.—A net increase of $73,952,227 in the assessments is shown in the recapitulation sheets sent in by County Tax Commissioners of eighty-five of the 120 counties. The assessment this year is on a basis of 80 per cent of the fair cash value, a horizontal raise of a little less than 6 per cent which each county must show unless there is an actual diminution in total wealth.

As the assessments per acre had not been raised to the abnormal prices at which land sold for the last three years it is not believed at the State Tax Commission office that the slump in land values will materially, if at all, affect the assessed valuation when it is equalized.

BOARD EMPHASIZES DANGER OF RABIES

Persons Bitten By Dogs That Have Acted Suspiciously Should Guard Against Disease.

Louisville, Ky., February 2.—As a result of examinations of four dogs' heads sent the Laboratory of the State Board of Health during January, every one of which was found to be that of an animal that had been suffering with rabies when killed, the State Board of Health has issued a general warning against that disease.

The four heads which were sent in came from Elkton, Todd-co.; Paris, Bourbon-co.; Alexandria, Campbell-co.; and Sturgis, Union-co. These animals all had acted suspiciously and all had bitten human beings, who will avert the terrible consequences of being bitten by the promptness with which they acted in having the heads examined and in taking the Pasteur treatment.

The State Board of Health's warning emphasizes the fact that every person who has been bitten by a dog that has acted suspiciously should kill the animal immediately and send its head to the State Board of Health for examination. If the examination shows the dog had rabies the Pasteur treatment should be taken as quickly as the serum can be procured. If the treatment is begun in time rabies can be avoided readily enough, but if the treatment is too long delayed or entirely neglected the person may develop the disease, which has death as its certain culmination.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Snyder, who are at Hot Springs Arkansas, for the benefit of the latter's health, are enjoying their stay there.

WEST VIRGINIAN IS CHOICE FOR COMMISSIONER

Washington, February 4.—If Senators Howard and Overland and Davis Elkins of West Virginia, will present the name of a man of undoubted ability and unquestioned integrity, President-elect Warren G. Harding will be strongly inclined to appoint him to be United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, it is said.

The man that Senator Elkins has in mind, and who, in his opinion, measures up to the presidential appraisal, is former Governor A. B. White, of Parkersburg. It is well understood that Senator Elkins is exceedingly desirous of obtaining a desirable berth for the former Republican party leaders that Senator Warren G. Harding will be strongly inclined to appoint him to be United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, it is said.

The obstacle to carrying out this program is that Governor White insists upon being named to the Collectorship of Internal Revenue for West Virginia or nothing. He and Samuel Logan, also of Parkersburg, are rival leaders and rival aspirants for this place and the contest has developed into a bitter factional quarrel. Should the former permit his name to be presented for the higher office both West Virginians will land and a factional dispute will have been avoided, the leaders say.

SEEK AGREEMENT AS TO TRAIN SERVICE

Frankfort, Feb. 4.—The Paintsville Chamber of Commerce is backing a plan to bring together officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad and representatives of Louisville, which is asking for a night train, Lexington, which wants a Pikeville sleeper; Ashland, which demands a parlor and buffet car, and Winchester, which is understood not to be entirely satisfied with the Louisville sleeper plan. Paintsville itself, wants a new station and J. E. Harrison, superintendent of the division, appearing before the State Railroad Commission yesterday, said that the roads intend to make needed improvements as soon as the money is available.

JURY TO HEAR MATEWAN MURDERS

Williamson, W. Va., Feb. 9.—The Matewan battle trial will actually get under way tomorrow. This conclusion was reached late this afternoon after a jury of twelve men had been chosen to try twenty-one mountaineers charged with the killing of Albert C. Feltz, in the Matewan fight, Weary and worn by the strain of the past two weeks, Judge R. D. Bailey rushed to completion the tentative panel of twenty men and demanded that the surplus be struck immediately in order that the first witness could be placed upon the stand.

Only one union man was retained on the jury after the state had exercised its right of eliminating two jurors and the defense six.

The Jury.

The juryman selected were: John Farley, Thomas Maggard, Everett Musick, Mose Workman and Wyatt Belcher, farmers; Thomas Chapman and Julius Hall, school teachers; Jas. Belcher, employee of a telephone company; Clarence C. Ireson, electrician; J. M. Robinson, laborer; J. B. Massie, railroad brakeman, and Frank Bell, sawmill worker. Massie is the only union man on the list.

CIRCUIT COURT IS GRINDING

LAWRENCE COUNTY REGULAR TERM OPENED LAST MONDAY BY JUDGE CISCO.

The Lawrence Circuit Court was called to order last Monday by Judge A. N. Cisco, who instructed the grand jury and organized the court. The judge's mother-in-law died at his home at Grayson and he left for that place Monday afternoon. The body was taken to West Liberty for burial.

The bar unanimously elected attorney G. W. Castle to serve as special judge. He is expediting the business. 125 cases were disposed of the first day.

The 408 indictments made at the last court for failure to secure license tags for dogs brought a large crowd to court the first day or two. The fact developed that a considerable number of these parties had paid the tax, some within the time fixed by law, and others before the indictments were made. A test case is to be made of the latter class and will be taken to the Appellate court. Some cases in which service was not obtained were continued. 24 cases were tried and a fine of $10 in each case was inflicted.

Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Waugh is on the job.

The juries are made up as follows: Grand Jury.—F. F. Freese, foreman, Theodore Kinner, A. J. Parker, Ham Bradley, Jack Bryant, Garfield Adams, Cole Sparks, Payton Blackburn, Zach Denomy, M. G. Berry, John Morris, Lane Moore.

Curlette, Sam Maynard, Dock Smith, Sam Brannan, Taylor, Frazier, William Burgess, Sanford Chandler, M. B. Sparks, Hascom Thacker, Milt Meade, Wm. Parker, J. M. Pigg, Millard Short, John Wallace, Wm. Adams, D. F. Kiger, Sam Prince, Gabe Endicott, John D. Atkins, Ed. F. Burgess, Wm. Howell, T. L. Wright.

5,000,000 IN CHINA VERGING ON STARVATION, U. S. IS TOLD

Washington.—The famine situation in China has reached such a crisis that 5,000,000 persons may die unless immediate help is given, according to information received by the State Department.

Another famine equally severe may arise next fall unless food is made available to the Chinese farmers, who presently are unable to undertake the spring plowing, a statement issued by the department, said.

These Chinese are doing all in their power to relieve the situation, the statement added, and it is estimated that $5,000,000 will be obtained for relief by surcharges imposed on the railway, telegraphic and postal services. Red Cross funds amounting to $1,000,000 will help 35,000 persons for 200 days, it was stated.

Official reports, the statement said, show that every economy is being practiced in administering and distributing relief.

All Records for Corn Crop Broken

Washington, February 5.—Nineteen hundred and twenty was the greatest corn year in the history of the country, according to the records of the Department of Agriculture. Besides growing a record crop of 3,232,367,000 bushels, the farmers established a new record for average yield an acre, with 39.9 bushels, the second time in history that the country's average yield went past 30 bushels.

The area planted to corn last year was 104,601,000 acres, which was smaller than the area planted in eight other years heretofore, and 1,400,000 acres smaller than the area which produced the previous record crop of 3,124,746,000 bushels in 1912. Last year's crop was the third to exceed 3,000,000,000 bushels.

Iowa, the country's greatest corn-producing state, made an average of 46 bushels to the acre for the first time in its history. The highest average acre yield of any state was that of Vermont, with 47 bushels. Maine, in 1919, had the highest average acre yield, with 60 bushels. In the 10 years previous to that year the highest average acre yield has been made by one of the New England States. Connecticut had highest yield in six of the ten years. Massachusetts in two, New Hampshire in one and Vermont and Massachusetts tying in one.

Prater, West Virginia; and Frank Chester Prater, Flemingsburg.

WOMAN LOSES ARM IN SAVING HUSBAND

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 4.—A woman, it has been proved, will give up her life for one she loves.

The latest demonstration of this, news of which reached here today, is the case of Mrs. Ota Mitchell, 20 years old, who lives at First creek, Ferry-co. James Mitchell, her husband, became intoxicated on bootlegged whiskey. He did not come home, and his wife set out to look for him. Finally she found him. In his drunken maneuverings Mitchell had stretched out between the rails of a railroad and had gone to sleep.

A train came around a curve and bore rapidly toward him. Mrs. Mitchell rushed to her husband and began tugging at his body. The engineer saw her and frantically tried to stop the train. Mrs. Mitchell realized she could not save her husband and herself, so she placed her own body between Mitchell and the train. With a last despairing push she rolled her husband's body over the rail to safety, but it was too late to save herself.

The engine pilot struck her, dragging her partly under the wheels and mangling her right arm so badly that it had to be amputated.

Mrs. Mitchell is in a serious condition from her injuries and the strain she underwent in sacrificing herself for her husband, who was not hurt.

WHAT IS CAUSING KENTUCKY FIRES?

Five Year Total of 419,038,989 Shown To Be Largely Preventable. Public Cooperation Necessary.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters through its Actuarial Bureau has just completed a five year analysis figures, now for the first time made of the fire losses for Kentucky. These figures, reveal in a startling way the price which is paid by the State for public ignorance and carelessness in the matter of fire hazard. They are drawn from an exhaustive study of approximately 32,000 different fires actually reported upon by the insurance companies, and to the figures presented it is estimated that 25 per cent should be added to cover fires not reported to the Actuarial Bureau.

The causes are classified into three groups, of which twelve are listed as strictly preventable with a total of $4,741,715 or 24.9 per cent of the whole; nine are designated partly preventable and total $7,492,334 or 39.4 per cent of the whole, and beyond these are the unknown causes totalling $6,804,940 or 33.7 per cent. These unknown causes may be considered as probably largely preventable, since, if known, they would be distributed among the other causes.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never fails below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants. It is important that you use only straight wheat flour (not self-rising flour) and pure baking powder if you wish to obtain the golden demanded by sound health.

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, his city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness, my back ached, I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak. "I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. "I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble."

Dizziness, headache, sideache, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a very valuable remedy. Cardui is composed only of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women. Take Cardui. Your druggist sells it. NO-140

THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Read this statement:

W. E. Wiley, farmer, Box 56, Whitehouse, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly all right for I have treated with them on different occasions and they always relieve me. My back, at times, has ached for quite a spell and there would be a dull kind of ache right across the center of my back. Many a day I had to give up my work on the farm and go to bed. I was so sore and lame I would have to go about with a cane. I also had blinding dizzy spells and things appeared dark in front of me. My kidneys were irregular in action, the secretions would pass too frequently; then again would be scanty and painful. I tried most everything I heard of for relief, but Doan's Kidney Pills were the only remedy I ever found to reach my case. After using two boxes, I was cured and put in good shape for work. I couldn't recommend a better remedy for kidney trouble than Doan's Kidney Pills."

OBITUARY

James M. Frasher, youngest son of Captain Oliver M. and Eda Frasher, was born May 18, 1880. He departed this life January 21, 1921, aged 40 years, 8 months and 3 days. He was married to Mary Frances Mann, the daughter of John Mann, December 23, 1905. To this union were born six children. One is dead, five living. Ulysses G., a little baby, gone to the glory land; Rozella, 13, Dovie May, 10, Edgar, 8, Robert, 5, Mary Elizabeth, 11 months old. Also, three sisters and three brothers and many dear friends to mourn the loss of a good friend. His 3 sisters are Mrs. S. G. Queen, Mrs. Harry Nunley and Mrs. Mart Bostic. Brothers, M. C. Frasher, C. A. Frasher and U. G. Frasher.

The writer has known little Jim Frasher from early childhood and to know him was to love him. While on his death bed he made peace with God and said the Lord had promised him a home and in his last moments he said "the Lord is with me now."

Weep not, dear wife, children, sisters, brothers, friends and neighbors. He is not dead only to this life. He has crossed the last river, faced the last storm, topped the last mountain, and on the captured battlements of God's love he can shout home at last. He was a member of I. O. O. F. 343, Dennis. Also, a member of Big Blaine Encampment No. 43, I. O. O. F., of Fallsburg. They took charge of the burial. Funeral was preached by Rev. R. H. Cassidy, after which complying with his dying request his remains were taken to old Mount Nebo cemetery and there consigned to the narrow limits of the grave where sleep the remains of grandfather, grandmother, father, mother and one sister, there to sleep until the trump of God awakes their sleeping dust when they will come up in a glorified form and have a part in the resurrection on which the second death hath no power.

God bless the mourning relatives. You have our sympathy. We know what it is to give up dear loved ones though heaven has gained by our loss. They can not come back to us, but we can go to them.

ADAM HARMAN.

It is no longer incumbent upon the government to punish coal profiteers. The market is doing that.

There is so much work waiting to be done in the United States and in the world that it is difficult to see how business can fail to be good. Price adjustment is rapidly arriving and the 66th Congress is dying.

Germany suffered no devastation in the awful war she started, and she is therefore not only able to pay the indemnity fixed by the allies, but should be forced to do so. The limit of her ability to pay should be the only measure of the penalty.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

A dispatch from London announces plans that are being made for international honors for Major General Gorgas, of the United States army, who died at that capital several months ago, and whose remains were more recently received in this country for interment. There may be some who will question the advantage of posthumous honors of this kind. General Gorgas is dead, and his great career is behind him. The French, English, and Belgians, who propose to erect a monument in his honor, can do nothing that he may know of, and yet it has always been the custom of the English to pay tributes of this kind to distinguished public servants after their decease, and no valid objection may be made to the same.

The career of General Gorgas was quite fully reviewed in the newspapers and magazines at the time of his death, and that need not be repeated here. The English verdict that he was "one of the great figures of his generation" may not be questioned. In Panama, fighting the yellow fever mosquito, in Cuba doing the same thing, as Surgeon General of the United States army during the war, and later still risking his life to launch a scientific campaign to remedy sanitary conditions in the fever-haunted countries of Northern South America, General Gorgas rendered services to his country and humanity that may with great difficulty be overestimated. The idea that suggests itself to the Evening Post in connection with these posthumous honors for the deceased Surgeon General is more in the way of contending for a better recognition of the medical profession than of discussing General Gorgas' career. General Gorgas was the most distinguished of the medical men who rendered services to America during the war, but there were hundreds of others who did fine work, and many of them made personal sacrifices of a character not demanded of General Gorgas.

Looking back upon the story of America's participation in the great war, the Evening Post has little difficulty in reaching the conclusion that the work done by American surgeons and physicians during the war accomplished more and has been appreciated less than that of any other class of our citizens. Surgeons with incomes running up into the tens of thousands of dollars annually left their offices to serve as captains and majors in the army. Others whose incomes were not so assured risked losing the work of years to answer their country's call. And the work done was admirable. The death rate in our armies, both in this country and in France, was small, and every soldier home from Europe has something to say about the fine work of the American medical men.

And this brings us quickly to the conclusion we wish to make. For years there has been an agitation in this country for higher salaries for school teachers, and the agitation was in a worthy cause. Have not many of us, in our zeal for improved education, neglected the duty of bringing the compensation of the medical profession up to the point that will enable America, in the future as in the past, to secure a satisfactory proportion of the promising young men of America for this, unless it be the ministry, the noblest of all the professions? In the great cities a certain proportion of the most successful physicians and surgeons earn large rewards, but in the country districts the emoluments of doctors are far too low in view of the expensive education that is now required, and, even in the cities, many of the medical fees are below what they should be in view of the advance in the cost of living. The Evening Post hesitates to make anything resembling an argument for increased living costs, but we are convinced that we must pay our physicians and surgeons more. Medical men always do a large amount of charity work, and this will continue, whether other fees rise or remain stationary. Louisville Post.

President Wilson's Program Calls for Complete Rest

Washington. — President Woodrow Wilson plans to go into virtual seclusion for a time after March 4. From the responsibility of office, which have weighed heavily upon him during his convalescence, Mr. Wilson, his friends say, will shut himself in for a period of intensive rest and quiet in the new home he has purchased here.

He will deny himself to all callers except immediate members of his family and a very few intimate friends, and whom, throughout his illness, he has kept in contact. No formal engagements of any character are expected to be made by the President until he shall have thoroughly adjusted himself to private life after some 10 years in public service. Even the writing which he has planned to do upon his retirement from the White House will be postponed for several months, his friends say.

Mr. Wilson is understood to have received a number of invitations to spend part of the summer out of Washington, but, because of his dejection with the pleasant weather here last summer, the first which he had spent in this city, it is regarded as unlikely that he will accept any of the invitations.

For possibly six months, friends of the President believe his life will be wholly taken up with recreation. His chief diversion since his illness has been reading.

Since his resumption last week of his old custom of attending the theater, the President is expected to continue, as his health improves, to find occasion more and more to avail himself of this form of recreation. He also is expected to continue his daily automobile rides.

Having suffered no ill effects from his attendance at the theater last week, his first appearance in public since he was taken ill more than 18 months ago, President Wilson again attended the theater Monday night. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and her brother, John Randolph Roling.

The President chose a musical comedy in contrast with the heavier production, John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln," which he saw on his first visit. Mr. Wilson, and his party, reached the theater about five minutes before the performance began, and, as on his previous visit, he aided only by a cane, walked to one of the lower boxes.

Contributions Wanted For European Relief

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has contributed $1,000,000 to the fund of $23,000,000 being raised by the European Relief Council for the salvage of child life in the war-wasted countries of Central and Eastern Europe.

When Herbert Hoover was presented with this great gift, he made it clear that the contribution came from Mr. Rockefeller as a personal donation and that it was in no part that of his father or a benefaction from the Rockefeller Foundation.

Mr. Hoover said he simply was not getting the money needed to save the lives of the starving children. He said the people of the United States had more than they need, with an eighteen months food supply in hand and a mounting surplus that is causing unemployment, and yet were not responding readily to the call of the suffering.

"Something must be done if such a situation is allowed to continue," he said. "If we would preserve the foundation of civilization we can not allow it to go on. The people of suffering Europe must be given the knowledge that America stands behind every project to promote the welfare and happiness of humanity."

"Peace itself is predicated upon good will among men rather than upon documents. There is nothing that so maddens men as to see their children perishing about them, so I say that peace is to ensure the suffering of these innocent little victims of war must be relieved."

A check to Richard Bean, Kentucky Treasurer, addressed to any bank in the State will help complete the fund.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY, IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of L. L. Kinser, a Bankrupt.
On this 3rd day of February A. D. 1921, on considering the petition of the aforesaid bankrupt for discharge, filed on the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1921, it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1921, before said court at Covington in said district at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon, or at any time thereafter as practicable, and that notice thereof be published one time in Big Sandy News, a newspaper printed in said district, and all known creditors, and other persons in interest may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

WITNESS the Honorable A. M. J. Cochran, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, at Catlettsburg, in said district, on the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1921.

EAST POINT

Called by his Master at 11:45 p. m. February 3, W. W. Greer passed to the great beyond at his home near here. His death was not unexpected as he had been seriously ill for several weeks from a complication of diseases. All that kind and loving hearts and hands could do was done for him. He was 73 years old and leaves a wife, nine daughters, two sons, nine grand children, four sisters and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn his loss. His children were with him when the end came, excepting Mrs. Emma Greer of Claremore, Okla., and Mrs. Earl Blair of West Van Lear, who is ill herself. Mr. Greer practiced law for a number of years and at one time was a representative of district No. 10. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Webster Greer.

Before he died Mr. Greer assured his family that all was well with his soul. He was a charter member of East Point Lodge No. 657, F. & A. M. and was buried with the honors of that degree. A large crowd attended the funeral and expressed their sympathy for the bereaved ones in many ways. The floral offerings were beautiful.

ADVANCE FASHIONS for SPRING

---limited in number but wonderfully smart and attractive

Just arrived and ready for inspection is a remarkably beautiful group of the new Spring suit modes. We are agreeably surprised at the ingenious innovations, the unusual line and the distinctive little touches in detail and trimmings. Marked departure from the styles of seasons past is a feature of this attractive group and no one will deny that they are as becoming as they are unusual. This showing, though limited in size, correctly interprets the favored mode, and speaks volumes for the other assortments that will take their allotted places as the season progresses.

THE BOX-COAT SUIT IS A REAL FAVORITE

Box coats lend a youthful touch to many of the most attractive models and are mentioned as one of the outstanding features of the new fashions. These are often embroidered in elaborate designs or embellished with a bright-colored sash of knitted silk. A few models which are suggestive of sports occasions have jackets of plain materials and skirts of rough wool plaids in striking contrast. Men's wear and French serges, tricotines and shepherd checks are favored for early wear and lend themselves admirably to the soft lines that are a part of the majority of models. The dark, rich shades of blue are especially prominent. Some are priced as low as $59.50.

Think of Buying Wright & Peters Shoes as Low as $3.75 and $5.75

That's our idea of real economy — unquestionable quality at a nominal cost. Wright and Peters shoes for women offer every good thing possible to obtain in modern footwear and during the closing days of this sale we are including every remaining model at one of the other of the two above prices.

Choose from brown, field-mouse and grey kid button boots; dul kid and patent in both button and lace styles.

The New Hand-Bag That Will Be Most Favored of all for Spring

Subtle designs and colorings which remind one of the ne westome fabrics appear on the new hand bags which are fashioned from Mecca leather. The designs are styled on and blend with rich colorings of the leather. These new bags are offered in such wanted effects as purples, reds, oranges, swags and vanities.

They are designed to be worn with costumes fashioned from the new Spring voiles and similar fabrics. They are priced from $2.50 to $12.00.

CHURCH NEWS AND OTHER MATTERS OF RELIGIOUS NATURE

TO THE LAMBS AND THE OLD SHEEP TOO

A Letter from Bro. Harbin.
The Louisa meeting was so crowded toward the last with the great work of peeping that we did not find a moment in which to speak to the young converts of counsel so necessary at such a time. We are asking the editor of the Big Sandy News to give the opportunity to speak this message through his columns. It may be, too, that some of those who have been christians for many years will find help in this message.

Christianity is Christ living and expressing Himself in and through men and women. When Christ does not dwell in us we are not christians. When He does dwell in us, we are christians. He simplifies life for us. The sinner has to fight sin and strive to conform himself to numerous ideals. We have only to hold on to Jesus, and He transforms us. There are some practical methods by which to hold on to Him.

1st. By the Reading and Study of His Word.

Be a daily Bible reader and Bible student. "Thy Word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against Thee." Jesus Himself used the Word in resisting the devil. It is God's food for our souls. A christian well armed and buckled with God's Word, and fed on its sacred truths is thereby able to keep his heart open to Jesus. Read the Bible every day.

2nd. By Prayer.

When we read the Word, God talks to us. When we pray, we talk to God. And so we talk together; my Lord and I.

But prayer is more than talking to God; it is communion with God. In every prayer some of us goes up to Him; some of Him comes down to us. A prayerless christian will wither fast.

3rd. By Using the means of Grace.

Besides Bible reading and prayer, there are the services of the Church, the Lord's Supper, and the work of His Kingdom. I have gone away from many a prayer meeting with a sense of Jesus' presence in my heart that has buoyed me up through all the week. I never attended services but in sermon or prayer or song I found Him coming sensibly into my heart.

4th. By active service.

Every talent we use multiplies. Do something for Jesus every day. By and by we shall hear His voice: "You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of My Lord."

Above all else, let Jesus meet every temptation for you. A drunkard, after his conversion, was terribly tempted to drink. He knew, as the old appetite swept over him, that he could not

BEGINNING THE DAY

"If a man begins the day in a good humor," observed the professor, "everything will prosper with him."

"You talk as though beginning the day in a good humor was as easy as falling off a log," said the low-browed man. "I suppose you have been reading one of those fool sunshine books, and you think a man can be in a good humor just by saying he is going to be. But a man can't control his humors any more than he can control dreams."

"Some days I feel like the original Sunny Sam-uel, and I just naturally go around shedding light into the dark places, and making everybody glad. At such times the world seems an unqualified success, and the fact that I was born into it does not cause me any remorse. If some prominent citizen backed me up against a fence and asked me what made me feel so gay, I couldn't give him any helpful information. I don't know, myself, what causes the chipper feeling. I suppose it must be because my works are in good condition, doing their digestive stunts at the old stand."

"After a few days the glad feeling passes away, and instead of being a Sunny Samuel I become a Mourning Moses. I have all kinds of presentiments of evil. I have a firm conviction that the bottom is about to drop out of everything, and that I'll be mixed up with the wreckage. I take a pessimistic view of everything, and go grousing around until even the cows are sick of seeing me, and they give me a lift with their hind feet as a gentle hint that I should come out of my trance."

"If a leading business man asked me to explain my melancholy I couldn't do it. The world seems to be moving along as though nothing had happened, the same old sun is shining on the day shift, and the scented zephyrs are blowing through my whiskers as of old."

"Often a man begins the day wrong through some accident or unpleasant experience. Then he knows why he has a grouch, but that doesn't help him to get rid of it. This morning I was lying in bed dreaming that I was the only original white hope, and that I was making a heroic effort to bring the laurels back to the Caucasian race. I was just administering an uppercut that seemed destined to bring home the bacon, when I fell out of bed and practically ruined my head against the floor."

"I came downstairs in a beastly humor, and after breakfast I went over and picked a quarrel with old Doc Little, so that he had to shin up a tree to escape violence, and all because I was feeling ornery. It wouldn't have been safe for any man to tell me that in order to begin the day right all a man has to do is to begin it right."

"I have gone out from the house to milk the cows in the morning, many a time, feeling as blithesome and glad as a dickybird, and quite satisfied that the day was going to be one round of pleasure. Then a cow would give me a poke in the ribs with one of her celluloid horns, or push her big splay foot into a brimming bucket of milk, and the joyous stuff was all off, and I'd be so sore all day that Aunt Julia would hand me my meals with a pitchfork."

"The other morning I got up feeling so mean that I was ashamed to look in the mirror. I went downtown after breakfast, in the mood to rob a blind organ grinder of his few plugged nickels. Then I went to the post office and got a registered letter. A man who had owed me $2 for five years had an ingrowing conscience at last, and sent the money to me. When I left the post office everybody commented on my winning smile and said I was the little sunbeam of the town."

Twins Strangely Linked.

Albert Grierson and Walter Grierson, St. Louis twins, were members of the same company, and each wore a small diamond ring and a watch and chain in France. Albert lost the stone of his ring and a few days later Walter lost the stone of his. Then Albert lost his watch and chain and soon afterward Walter's disappeared. Then Albert was wounded and Walter followed suit. And now they intend to marry twin sisters, Geraldine and Blendine Smalley of Sheldon, Ill.—Indianapolis News.

All Depends.

"Can you support my daughter in the style she's been accustomed to?" asked the father of the young man who sought his daughter in marriage. "Well," replied the young man thoughtfully, "is she strong for a $500 baby grand piano or a $5 talking machine?"

A Good Wish.

Friend—Good! I hope you will have many happy returns.

WENDLING CLIMBS PRISON WALLS

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8. Joseph Wendling, serving a life sentence for the murder of 8-year-old Alma Kellner December 8, 1909, in the basement of St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Louisville, where he was janitor, has been leaving the State penitentiary at night to visit a woman friend and presumably visit a woman friend. It was discovered here last night when he was caught returning to his cell after an evening of liberty.

With the discovery of the prisoner's periods of absence, effort was being made to connect him with the mysterious black-veiled woman who has appeared on the streets of Frankfort during last week.

The prisoner had a pink kimono in his possession when he was caught returning to the penitentiary by means of a rope ladder and is believed while outside the prison to have masqueraded as a woman.

Where Wendling obtained the ladder he used in scaling the wall and how often he has been out at night and returned to the prison has not been revealed by prison authorities. It is known, however, that he has been out before. He is said to have made a confession, but its contents have not been divulged.

Operates Prison Movie Machine.

Wendling's absence was detected last night when he failed to go to his cell following a picture show in the chapel at which he operated the motion picture machine. An alarm was sounded by Assistant Superintendent George Hicks and search was under way when guards on the wall reported his capture as he was climbing back into the prison enclosure after an absence of several hours.

Wendling escaped from the penitentiary August 22, 1919, and was gone a week. He disguised as a woman when Patterson Scott apprehended him at night in front of the Court House. The vegetation covered his head hid him in the attic of the old State House building, where previously he had done electrical work.

Wendling had been an outside trusty prior to his first getaway. Since then he has been an inside trusty. Arrangements were made today that all prisoners had been taken from him following his escape of last night. He is confined in a cell and assigned to work in the shops. Wendling was due to be up for a parole but his chances were ruined by his first escape.

Gone Several Days Once.

Several nights ago two women inmates of Frankfort authorities they were frightened by the actions of a mysterious person in woman's attire, wearing a black veil, who entered their cell and they were on that way to the Y. M. C. A. They were of the opinion that the strange pedestrian was a man masquerading as a woman.

When he made his first getaway from the prison Wendling called at the home of Mrs. C. W. Doyle, shoe foreman at the penitentiary. It was believed that he had tricked Mrs. Doyle into leaving and that he expected to find her small daughter alone. Another theory was that he planned to steal Mr. Doyle's clothes and use them in escaping detection in his flight.

Mrs. Doyle had received a letter telling her to call at the Capitol to receive pay for shirts she had made. The note was signed S. H. Marshall. It was said to correspond with Wendling's handwriting. Guards and Franklin county officers searched Frankfort and the surrounding country several days before the fugitive was captured.

Girl Murdered in Church.

The crime for which Wendling was sentenced to life imprisonment was one of the worst in the criminal annals of Louisville. Alma Kellner, daughter of Fred Kellner and cousin of Frank Fehr, left her home December 8, 1909, to attend church services in commemoration of the Immaculate Conception of the Savior's birth. She was never seen alive again.

The case was a mystery until her body was found under the music room of the church the following May 30. A search was then begun for Wendling, who left his place at the church a month after the child was murdered. He was traced on a tip from Houston, Tex., to San Francisco by former Chief of Detective John R. Carney and captured July 20, 1910. He was sentenced to life imprisonment December of the same year.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

Which One?
One of us dear.
But one.
Will sit by a bed with a nameless fear.
And clasp a hand.
Growing cold as it feels for the spirit hand.
Darling, which one?
One of us dear.
But one.
Will stand by the other's coffin here.
And look and weep.
While the marble lips strange silence keep.
Darling, which one?
One of us dear.
But one.
By an open grave will drop a tear.
And homeward go.
The anguish of an unshared grief to know.
Darling, which one?
One of us dear.
My little life may first be done.
I'm glad we do not know.
Which one.

Keeping To One Thing.

We earnestly entreat every young man, after he has chosen his vocation, to stick to it. Don't leave it because hard blows are to be struck or disagreeable work performed.

Those who have worked their way up to wealth and usefulness do not belong to the shiftless and unstable class, but may be reckoned among such as pulled off their coats, rolled up their sleeves, conquered their prejudices against labor and manfully bore the heat and burden of the day.

Whether upon the old farm, striving our fathers toiled diligently, or in the machine shop or factory, or the thousand other business places that invite honest toil and skill—let the motto ever be: Perseverance and industry. Stick to one thing, boys and you will have success.

With a woman's consent a man may have a legal right to possess a wife, but it is very questionable if, in the absence of love, he has any moral right to possess her. Love alone, in God's thought could only inspire such a union.

It is strangely true that many parents do not realize that they have it within their power to give to their children the strongest weapon against sin the world contains. That weapon is the memory of a happy home and childhood. No amount of preaching or teaching is going to give them the self-same outlook on life that they will gain from a happy and untroubled childhood. And it is every child's carefree. It seems a dreadful pity when parents insist upon bearing responsibility upon shoulders too young to carry it.

Never worry over a past action which was done with a good motive and with your best judgment at the time. Even though the future may prove that different action on your part would have brought better results, you cannot be expected to see into the future and crying over spilt milk only makes wrinkles and gray hairs.

By the time a man is married his character is formed, and he changes very little. His mother has made him and no matter how hard she tries his wife can do little toward altering him. As a rule also, his mother objects very strenuously at any attempts at alterations. She considers him a perfect sample of her own handiwork.

Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows and besides it has just as many as you. Smile and forget your pains. No one cares to hear about your headache, your earache, your rheumatism, or your inability to sleep. There is no person more unpopular than the one who constantly dwells upon his or her bodily infirmities.

There is no such thing as pure unalloyed pleasure; some bitter mingles with the sweet. When you seem to be having a particularly hard time do not look too enviously upon those about you whose lives seem free and untroubled. Little do you know what sorrow may be theirs though it does not appear on the surface of their lives.

We have heard of a man who never goes to bed at night with a bill unpaid. Even his newspaper is paid for in advance. Such a rule might be difficult and sometimes impossible to live up to, but at least it is a goal worth striving for.

Make all your appointments with Old Man Worry several days in advance. Usually when the day for the appointment arrives he will fail to keep it.

When a man dies they who survive him ask what property there is left behind; the angel who bends over the dying man asks what good deeds he has sent before him.

Be content with your lot, but not satisfied with a non-progressive situation.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Announcement

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:

"The price of the FORDSON Tractor has been reduced from $790.00 to $625.00, effective immediately.

"This price change has been made possible through lower costs of materials and the fact that we are now located in our new Tractor Plant with greatly increased economic manufacturing facilities in immediate connection with our foundry and machine shops and large blast furnaces where iron is poured directly from the ore, giving us maximum efficiency with the power to reduce cost of production, and down comes the prices in line with our policy to market our products at the lowest possible figure without in any way affecting our high standard of quality.

"We are particularly pleased in being able to bring about this big reduction in price at this time because the farmer needs all the help we can give him and this big cut in price will be the means of placing a valuable power unit within the reach of practically every one of them, not to mention industrial and commercial concerns which likewise have benefited through its use and are already realizing, to a much greater extent, its value as a power and hauling unit. But particularly has the FORDSON Tractor proved a most valuable factor in the saving of farm labor, at the same time increasing the per-acre crop yield, as well as making possible a utilization of previously uncultivated land, to say nothing of removing no end of drudgery.

"There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advancement made in the development of agriculture, not only in money-saving and money-making results, as well as raising the standards of living on the farm to a much higher level, but because of its proved value in making every type of land more productive, and consequently our desire to place the FORDSON within the reach of all.

There is no change in the present
Ford car and truck prices

which are already at the lowest possible figure, and now with rock bottom reached on the tractor price a further reduction in price of either Car, Truck or Tractor is out of the question; in fact, the big price cuts have been made in anticipation of continuous maximum production, and if a large volume of new business is not obtained. Therefore, present prices of Ford products cannot be guaranteed against possible increases."

Increases may be necessary before long

Ask for the book, "The Fordson at Work," which will be supplied free of cost. Let us demonstrate the value of the Fordson on your farm, in your factory, lumber yard, coal yard or in any general hauling or power work you have to do, and let us have your order for a Fordson.

STATE TREASURER OF CHINA FAMINE FUND

JOSEPH BURGE.

IN President Wilson's appeal for aid for the 40,000,000 Chinese facing starvation, he points out that $1 will feed one Chinese for a month. Through the appointment by the President, Joseph D. Burge, president of the Louisville Board of Trade, is state treasurer and the Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, is chairman. Funds for the China Famine Fund should be sent to Mr. Burge, 9 Board of Trade building, Louisville.

URGES FRIENDSHIP BE CEMENTED WITH CHINA

DR. HENRY E. DOSKER.

NOT only from a humanitarian standpoint but in view of the serious situation faced by America in the Orient, it would be wise to cement the friendship between the United States and China, in the opinion of the Rev. Dr. Henry E. Dosker, a member of the faculty of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville. Dr. Dosker, who served as a missionary in Japan and also in China, make an urgent appeal for funds for the 40,000,000 starving Chinese in the famine stricken provinces north of the Yellow river.

He has been in this territory and says he is not surprised at the report of the American Minister at Peking, which states that 15,000,000 of the inhabitants are subsisting on dry leaves, wild plants and tree bark and the death rate from starvation now is 15,000 a day with a typhus epidemic seemingly inevitable.

Uncle Dodge Hunt was found dead about one mile from Emma. He was shot in the back of the head with a shotgun. It is said he was murdered for his money by some one unknown. He was said to have had one thousand dollars when he left and when he was found he had no money on him.

He was a man about 62 years old and was known by many on Big Sandy river.

Dr. Winnes' Retrial

Is Set for April 15

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 4.—Making a final plea that jurors should not allow personal feeling to interfere with their interpretation of the testimony presented in court Judge W. T. Davis sent talesmen back to the jury room here today to continue their deliberations in the case of Dr. H. C. Winnes, charged with the murder of Laura Parsons.

When court convened Judge Davis summoned the jury to the court room, and asked if an agreement was in sight.

James Clanton, of the jury, responded that "it is difficult to reach an agreement when one man allows personal feeling to overrule the testimony presented in a trial."

"You can't say that of me, if I'm the man you're referring to," Morse Brewer, the juror reported to be standing out against his eleven colleagues, retorted.

Judge Davis spoke to the twelve men for nearly half an hour urging them to subordinate personal opinion and decide the Winnes case on the basis of testimony only.

The jurors retired to their room and in a few moments the sound of loud voices was drowned by the din of a scuffle.

The judge sent the sheriff into the jury room to subdue the belligerents. The sheriff having restored peace returned to the court room with word that two of the jury men had engaged in bodily conflict.

Harlan, Ky., The jury trying Dr. H. C. Winnes for the murder of Miss Laura Parsons was discharged Friday after the lone juror, who for four days and nights clung to his stand for conviction, threatened with knife drawn to do violence to any juror who persisted in arguing with him. It was at 2:10 o'clock when the jurors were dismissed. Before 3 o'clock the following developments followed in quick succession.

Judge Davis overruled a motion for the defense to quash the indictment on the ground that two of the jurors and jurors returning it had failed to hear the testimony.

Set For Retrial.

A Floyd Byrd special prosecutor announced that the Commonwealth would ask a change of venue to the next trial, which the defense will oppose.

The case was reset for trial at the next term of court for Friday, April 15. Dr. Winnes' bond, formerly $10,000 was reduced to $5,000, which was signed by a dozen business and professional men of Harlan.

Commonwealth's Attorney Grant Forster announced that it is unlikely that any negro convict will be charged for the crime until after Dr. Winnes is acquitted or convicted.

Defense attorneys announced they would investigate with a view of ascertaining persistent reports that Morse Brewer, gray-haired mountaineer who hung the jury, had expressed the opinion before the trial that Dr. Winnes was guilty.

The outcome of the trial brought forth various comments.

"It's a shame Brewer couldn't listen to reason. He wouldn't let us argue with him," was the commonest statement of eleven jurors for equality.

Conviction Believed Improbable.

"We will oppose any move to dismiss the indictment," said Mrs. Ethel LeLong Zande, head of the Pine Mountain Settlement School.

"I don't think Dr. Winnes will ever be convicted under the evidence, but I will not ask that the indictment be dismissed," Commonwealth Forester said.

"We will not circulate a petition asking the Commonwealth's Attorney to dismiss the case," Dr. Winnes was quoted by local press as he should have been this time. But we are going to ask for donations from the public for him," D. C. Jones, counsel for defense, said.

"My father always taught me that what will be will be. I know I never will be convicted. I guess everything is for the best," was Dr. Winnes' statement.

PAJAMAS WOMEN MADE FOR YANKS SOLD HERE

Washington, Feb. 5.—Pajamas, 40, 000 suits of them, made by American women for the boys in France, but sold in the French Government after the armistice, are being sold in this country through French and American speculators at $2.45 a suit. L. E. Hickok, assistant director of the Red Cross, A. E. F. declared today before a House investigating committee.

They were given to the army by the Red Cross and sold by the Liquidation Commission, he said. French speculators got them from the French Government later and selling them to Americans, who stripped them of the Red Cross insignia and marketed them here.

KENTUCKY COAL OUTPUT CONTINUES TO DECREASE

Washington. Loss of production due to lack of orders increased in Kentucky coal fields during the week of January 22 compared with the previous week, according to the Geological Survey.

The greatest loss is reported in the Northeastern fields where it jumped from 60.3 per cent to 67.7 per cent.

In the western field it increased from 34.5 per cent to 36.4 per cent; Hazard field from 41.9 per cent to 48.4 per cent; and in the Harlan field from 39 per cent to 33.7 per cent.

HARLAN MAN PARDONED.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 5.—Governor Morrow today pardoned Deputy Sheriff Boyd Kelley, Harlan co., whose conviction of the murder of Luther Shipman was reversed by the Court of Appeals because the verdict was "flagrantly against the evidence."

Luther and Grant Shipman were killed during mining troubles at Coxton. Following refusal of a disorderly element to submit to arrest and a demonstration in front of the court house, a posse was sent to arrest the two Shipmans and a battle ensued. The Shipmans were killed in their home.

Women of the household identified Boyd as the slayer, but it was proved that previously they had identified several other men.

The Commonwealth's Attorney secured a pardon on the ground that a second trial would be a useless expense.

WOMAN IS CONVICTED.

Bluefield, W. Va.—Ending Southern and West Virginia's most sordid murder trial, a jury in Criminal court returned a verdict of murder in the second degree against Myrtle Chapman, charged with the murder of Hoge Woodyard, in that city a month ago.

The woman confessed she shot Woodyard to death. She said she wronged her when she was 15 years old and later induced her to desert her husband.

"WET" JURORS BARRED.

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 5.—"The whisky traffic and pistol 'toting' are the curse of the mountains, said Circuit Judge W. T. Davis, in talking to jury commissioners here today.

"Don't name as a juror any man you suspect of such habits,"

Eleven murder cases docketed at one term of court in Harlan county! Four hung juries! Not a civil case reached and court adjourned today!

"All but one murder case is traceable to liquor," said Judge Davis. "A wave of crime is engulfing us."
